FIRE SUITS

IMPERIAL ARMOUR'S FIRE FIGHTING HOOD:

OVERVIEW:

The IMPERIAL FIRE – Fire Fighting Hood is a fire inherent protective hood worn by fire fighters when their helmet does not provide built in protection for the ears, neck and parts of the face.

The hood is designed to protect all parts of the head and face that is not covered by a SCBA mask and firefighting helmet.

KEY ELEMENTS:

THE HOOD IS INITIALLY TUCKED INTO THE COLLAR, THE SCBA MASK IS THEN DONNED AND THE HOOD PULLED OVER THE FACE SEAL TO COVER ANY EXPOSED SKIN

CONSTRUCTED FROM 100% FIRE INHERENT NOMEX KNIT

COLOURS: NATURAL AND BLACK

THE FIREFIGHTING HOOD MEETS NFPA STANDARDS

MOST OFTEN THE HOOD IS MADE FROM DOUBLE PLY FABRIC WITH ONE SEAM RUNNING FROM THE TOP CENTRE OF THE FACE OPENING OVER THE TOP AND DOWN TO THE BOTTOM OF THE BIB.
